Directions:

1. Record the five facts that you believe the author would say are most important. Be sure to use complete sentences and explain why the author would include these as the most important facts. Draw a picture to help display this fact in the box provided. This paper will be on display in the classroom and/or around the school so make sure to do a great job.
2. Type a book review similar to one you might read in a magazine which is at least one eight to ten sentence paragraph long. Be sure to comment on the quality of writing, plot events, etc. You may include spoilers and reference the ending of the novel because these will not be on display. Submit your review to your teacher through schoology.
